

In April 2018, Panasonic Healthcare Co., Ltd.'s Biomedical Business Brand will change to PHCbi.

PHCbi

Back in 2012, Panasonic Healthcare Co., Ltd. acquired Sanyo Biomedical, a well-established biomedical device manufacturer since 1966. Since then, Panasonic Healthcare has maintained and excelled in Sanyo Biomedical's philosophy of high quality products, performance and delicate design.

From April 2018, Panasonic Healthcare Co., Ltd. will come to be known as PHC Corporation and our Biomedical Business Brand will change to PHCbi. Under our new organisational direction, we continue to commit ourselves to delivering high quality products and strive to further innovate by listening to your voices, adapting to the evolving needs of the research and medical care sectors.

Your continuous support would be our greatest honour.
